2015 Rest

The number 15 in the Bible pictures rest, which comes after deliverance, represented by fourteen.

The 15th day of the first Hebrew month (Nisan) is the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, a day of rest for the children of Israel (and for Christians). The 15th day of the 7th Hebrew month begins the Feast of Tabernacles, also a day of rest.

Acts 12:1-4 (KJV)

1 Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.)

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

In this teaching we will be focusing on the history of Easter, exploring its disturbing undeniable Pagan roots.

The Truth is that Easter has NOTHING whatsoever to do with the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace, Faith & Obedience: Understanding the Relationship

What is grace, faith and obedience, and how do they all work together? Are some of these concepts pitted against each other or do they work together in perfect harmony? Do they change and evolve? Or, does God have a consistent plan and method throughout all of time?

Grace. In any dictionary, grace is often defined simply as "unmerited favor." It is the receipt of something in which you did nothing to earn. God's grace is simply God extending His "unmerited favor" on His undeserving people. There is nothing that we can do to earn Yahweh's

Grace by its own definition means that it is freely given by God through no action of our own. God owes us nothing. We are all undeserving of any blessing and only deserve the curse (death) because we have all failed at keeping God's law perfectly. God's ultimate act of grace is His gift of salvation, saving us from the second death.

Faith. Faith is the foundation and source of all of our behavior. Faith is the believing, committing and trusting in God and His Word. God is defined as His Word, and Jesus (His Hebrew name, Yeshua) is defined as the Word made flesh. Having faith in God (and Yeshua) is the very same as stating one has faith (believes, commits and trusts) in God's Word.

Obedience and Works. Obedience is the result of our true faith. It is the resulting output of believing, committing, and trusting in God's Word after faith/trust has already been established. The more faith one has in God's Word, the more that faith will manifest in their observed behavior as obedience and the doing of God's Word and will.

The Feast of Trumpets Yom Teruah

Leviticus 23:1-2 (KJV)

1And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, Concerning the feasts of the Lord, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my feasts.

ROMANS 6:12-23

Romans 6:12-23 (AKJV)

12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. 13 Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

2 Corinthians 10:1-6 (AKJV) 10 Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you: 2 but I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: 4 (for the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; 6 and having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

The Holy Spiritthe power of God

Scripture refers to the Holy Spirit as the power of God

Zechariah 4:6

Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, said the LORD of hosts.

Micah 3:8

But truly I am full of power by the spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare to Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

Exodus 10:21 (AKJV)

21 And the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt.
