Three times Yahshua uses the word "persecuted," which means: Harassed, opposed, or ill-treated. Yahshua says, "If you pursue this life, this is what will happen to you. The world will not thank you for being a Christian. The world will not love the church. It will tolerate the church with suspicion at best, and will show it open hostility at worst. Yahshua says that everyone who does wicked things "hates the light" (John 3:20). They love darkness because it shrouds evil. If the light is in you, expect to be hated.
